

Adora R. Negrón Gómez

Urb. Carolina Alta

Milagros Cabezas Street, B-16

Carolina P.R 00987

787-317-1033 / e-mail: fada_luzente@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE: Creative, resourceful teacher with proven ability to enhance students' performance. Seeking to build a long-term career as an elementary teacher, or related field, with opportunities for career growth and to keep up with the cutting edge of the teaching technologies.

SKILLS: Self-motivated with a high level of energy, patience and tolerance. Excellent verbal communication skills. Fast and efficient decision making, critical thinking, organizing and planning. Flexible to different situations. Humane values that promote kindness and compassionate living.

RELATED FIELD WORK EXPERIENCE

Colegio de Médicos Veterinarios de P.R., San Juan, P.R

December 2019 – Present

Humane Educator

Teach Humane Education lessons, activities and workshops for students pre-k to 12 in the public school system. Curriculum and lesson design according to grade, Department of Education standards and specific community needs. Creating class schedules by integrating lessons in the school's regular classes. Visiting schools, daycare centers, elderly centers and summer camps to promote the kind treatment of animals as well as environmental awareness. Organize and lead virtual summer camp for ages 4 to 18. Creating educational materials for use in presentations. These items may include brochures, banners, posters, workbooks, and other handout materials. Also involved with producing videos, taking photos, and creating multimedia presentations used to promote animal welfare, environmental conservation and prosocial behaviors. Providing humane education virtual presentations to students and the general public. Offer teacher conferences on the importance of humane education in the classroom.

Require Inc., Guaynabo, P.R

January 2018 – December 2020

External collaborator

Develop Science lessons for K-3, mostly in English, for the EduLab Project. Occasionally developed lessons for other subjects, such as Mathematics and Spanish. Lessons are developed according to the Standards of the Department of Education. Aspects of the lesson design require creativity, subject knowledge, as well as understanding of Norman Webb's Depth of Knowledge framework. Must meet tight deadlines for lesson development.

JUNTOS Inc., Vieques P.R

June 2013 – 2016

Director of Humane Education

Teach Humane Education lessons, activities and workshops for students (pre-k to 12). Curriculum and lesson design according to grade and specific community needs. Creating class schedule by integrating lessons in the school's regular classes. Visiting schools, daycare centers, elderly centers and summer camps to promote the kind treatment of animals as well as environmental awareness. Creating educational materials for use in presentations. These items may include brochures, banners, posters, workbooks, and other handout materials. Also involved with producing videos, taking photos, and creating multimedia presentations used to promote animal welfare and environmental conservation. Humane Education teachings develop character by guiding children to be compassionate, empathetic, sensible, responsible and respectful towards animals, the environment and people as well.

Humane Society of Puerto Rico Inc., Guaynabo P.R

September 2006 – February 2010

Adoption Counselor and Humane Educator

As an Adoption Counselor my main task was to find appropriate homes for pets up for adoption. This included profiling each dog and cat living at the shelter, creating artwork, ads and promotion for adoption events, interviewing possible candidates to adopt, preparing literature and information packs for new adopters, making "follow up calls", contacting shelters in the U.S. for possible transfers, maintaining website and social media up to date, answering phone and emails, organizing adoption events and donation drives, being interviewed and appearing on T.V and radio shows. Humane Education task consisted of visiting schools, summer camps, church groups and other community groups to promote the humane treatment of animals and proper pet care. Activity, workshop, and lesson design.

Private Tutoring and Child Care, San Juan P.R

January 2005 – November 2005

Responsible for picking up two students at school, homework assistance and tutoring, supervision during extracurricular and after-school activities, child care and supervision.

CIEM, Carolina P.R

August 2004- March 2005

Kindergarten homework assistance, tutoring and supervision.

Tasks included snack disbursement, homework assistance, tutoring, supervising children in play area, receiving parents upon arrival to pick up children.

Academia del Carmen, Carolina P.R

August 2003 – December 2004

Tutor and teacher

Elementary level English and Spanish tutor, third grade homeroom teacher (Spanish, Social Studies, Science and Math), creating lesson plans, teaching, grading, organizing school activities such as school plays, dances, presentations, field trips and providing resources to benefit and enhance the children's learning experience. Follow department standards and expectations. Promote values inside and out of classroom to develop character in students.

VOLUNTEER WORK

Mi Mejor Amigo, Puerto Rico

July 2010 – Present

- Humane Educator
- Cat and dog behavior counselor
- Animal rescue and fostering advisor

EDUCATION

Universidad de Puerto Rico, Recinto de Rio Piedras

2000 - 2005

- Education Studies
- Fine Arts, Photography
- Business Administration

The Humane Society University

2009 – 2015

- Humane Education Specialist
- First Strike Program, Animal Cruelty and the Link to Interpersonal Violence

LANGUAGES: Fluent in English and Spanish